Like any American school, we, at East Vocational High School, come from an ancestry of many lands, races, and religions. Granted that we are varied in our individual inheritances, we still are one. Our activities at home, at school, in the community and over the land are so coordinated that our purposes come down to this: usefulness in living for the good of all. That goal may be realized only through cooperative effort. For this reason the 1948 Triangle dedicates itself to the theme -

"UNITED WE ARE"

We are proud that we are students of one of the many American schools which unites its efforts toward something fine and great--

Message

J. Smith

If you will make the best use of your time, if you will give to your job the very best of which you are capable, if you will give to your community and your neighbor your most honest and courteous thinking, you will in spite of many things, become a truly successful person.

Our Principal... Mrs Ruth Lape

Joanne Smith,
President

Senior Officers

Dear Classmates,

I was happily surprised when I was elected president of our class. The realization that my fellow students liked me as a friend gave me the confidence necessary to carry out the work of such high honor.

At the time of the election, a full year was ahead for all of us. In my case, since I was chosen as president, I foresaw that not only would I have to keep up with the required school work, but also to enter in all other school activities.

This much I knew. The seniors would have to set themselves as examples for the underclassmen. Friendliness, inspiration, and encouragement would be the ideals to foster.

As President of the Class of '48, I wish to express the gratitude and thanks of all of us to our teachers, who have made our school life happy and profitable.

To my classmates, I give thanks, too, for the fun we have had and for making our senior year the best one that East has had.

This is not a goodbye, it's just "till we meet again".

Class Will

We, who are of sound mind and body, well-groomed, good looking and well-to-do, hereby bequeath the following assets and liabilities:

To Mrs. Ruth Lape, Our Principal, we leave a medal which she so richly deserves for coping with us these four years.

To the faculty, we extend our thanks and appreciation for the skills which they so willingly taught us.

To our beloved school we hand down a bank filled with hope and assurance of success in all its activities.

To individual students we make the following bequests:

Jean Frank's jokes to George Hohweiler.

Mary Tribble's sportsmanship to Carolyn Vest.

Dee Gollahon's height to Dick Loesche.

Martha Lewis' quiet voice to Carol Wind.

Pat McMullen's Irish accent to Claudine Elmore.

Louise Morton's quiet manners to Jo Ann Griffith.

Rosemary DiLullo's gymnastic ability to Georgian Stiegler.

Joanne Smith's ability to lead her class to the next Senior Class President.

Shirley Meder's editorship of the Highlights to Bill Wilson.

Anne Dyer's bowling ability to Evelyn Geiser.

Lavenia Hayes' red-rimmed glasses to Georgetta Dixon.

Rosemary Frank's boisterousness to Alice Meiners.

Helen Imhoff's math ability to Mary Stevens.

Helen Gaskill's style of dancing to Dee Pirrmann.

Margaret Vainisi's curly locks to Mary Ann Jollie.

Josephine Marasco's ability to finish school to her sister Leanora.

Violet Evans' trim page-boy to Georgia Marshall.

Alice Prichard's promptness to Betty Hagaman.

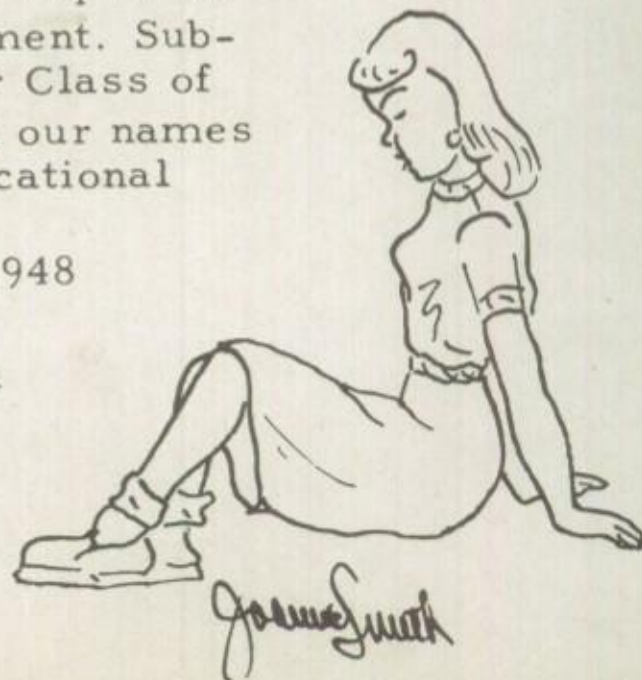

We appoint Mrs. E. Shields and Miss E. Peoples as executrices to this our last will and testament. Subscribed, sealed and declared by the Senior Class of 1948, in witness whereof we do hereby set our names and seal on this March 1, 1948 at East Vocational High School in the State of Ohio.

Joanne Smith

Hello there,

How times do change? I remember (and it wasn't so long ago) when a girl was strictly a "drip" if her skirt was not above her knees and if her sweater was not large enough to fit her father.

Now the skirts are getting longer day by day and the sweaters are bought to fit the wearer. Such is life!

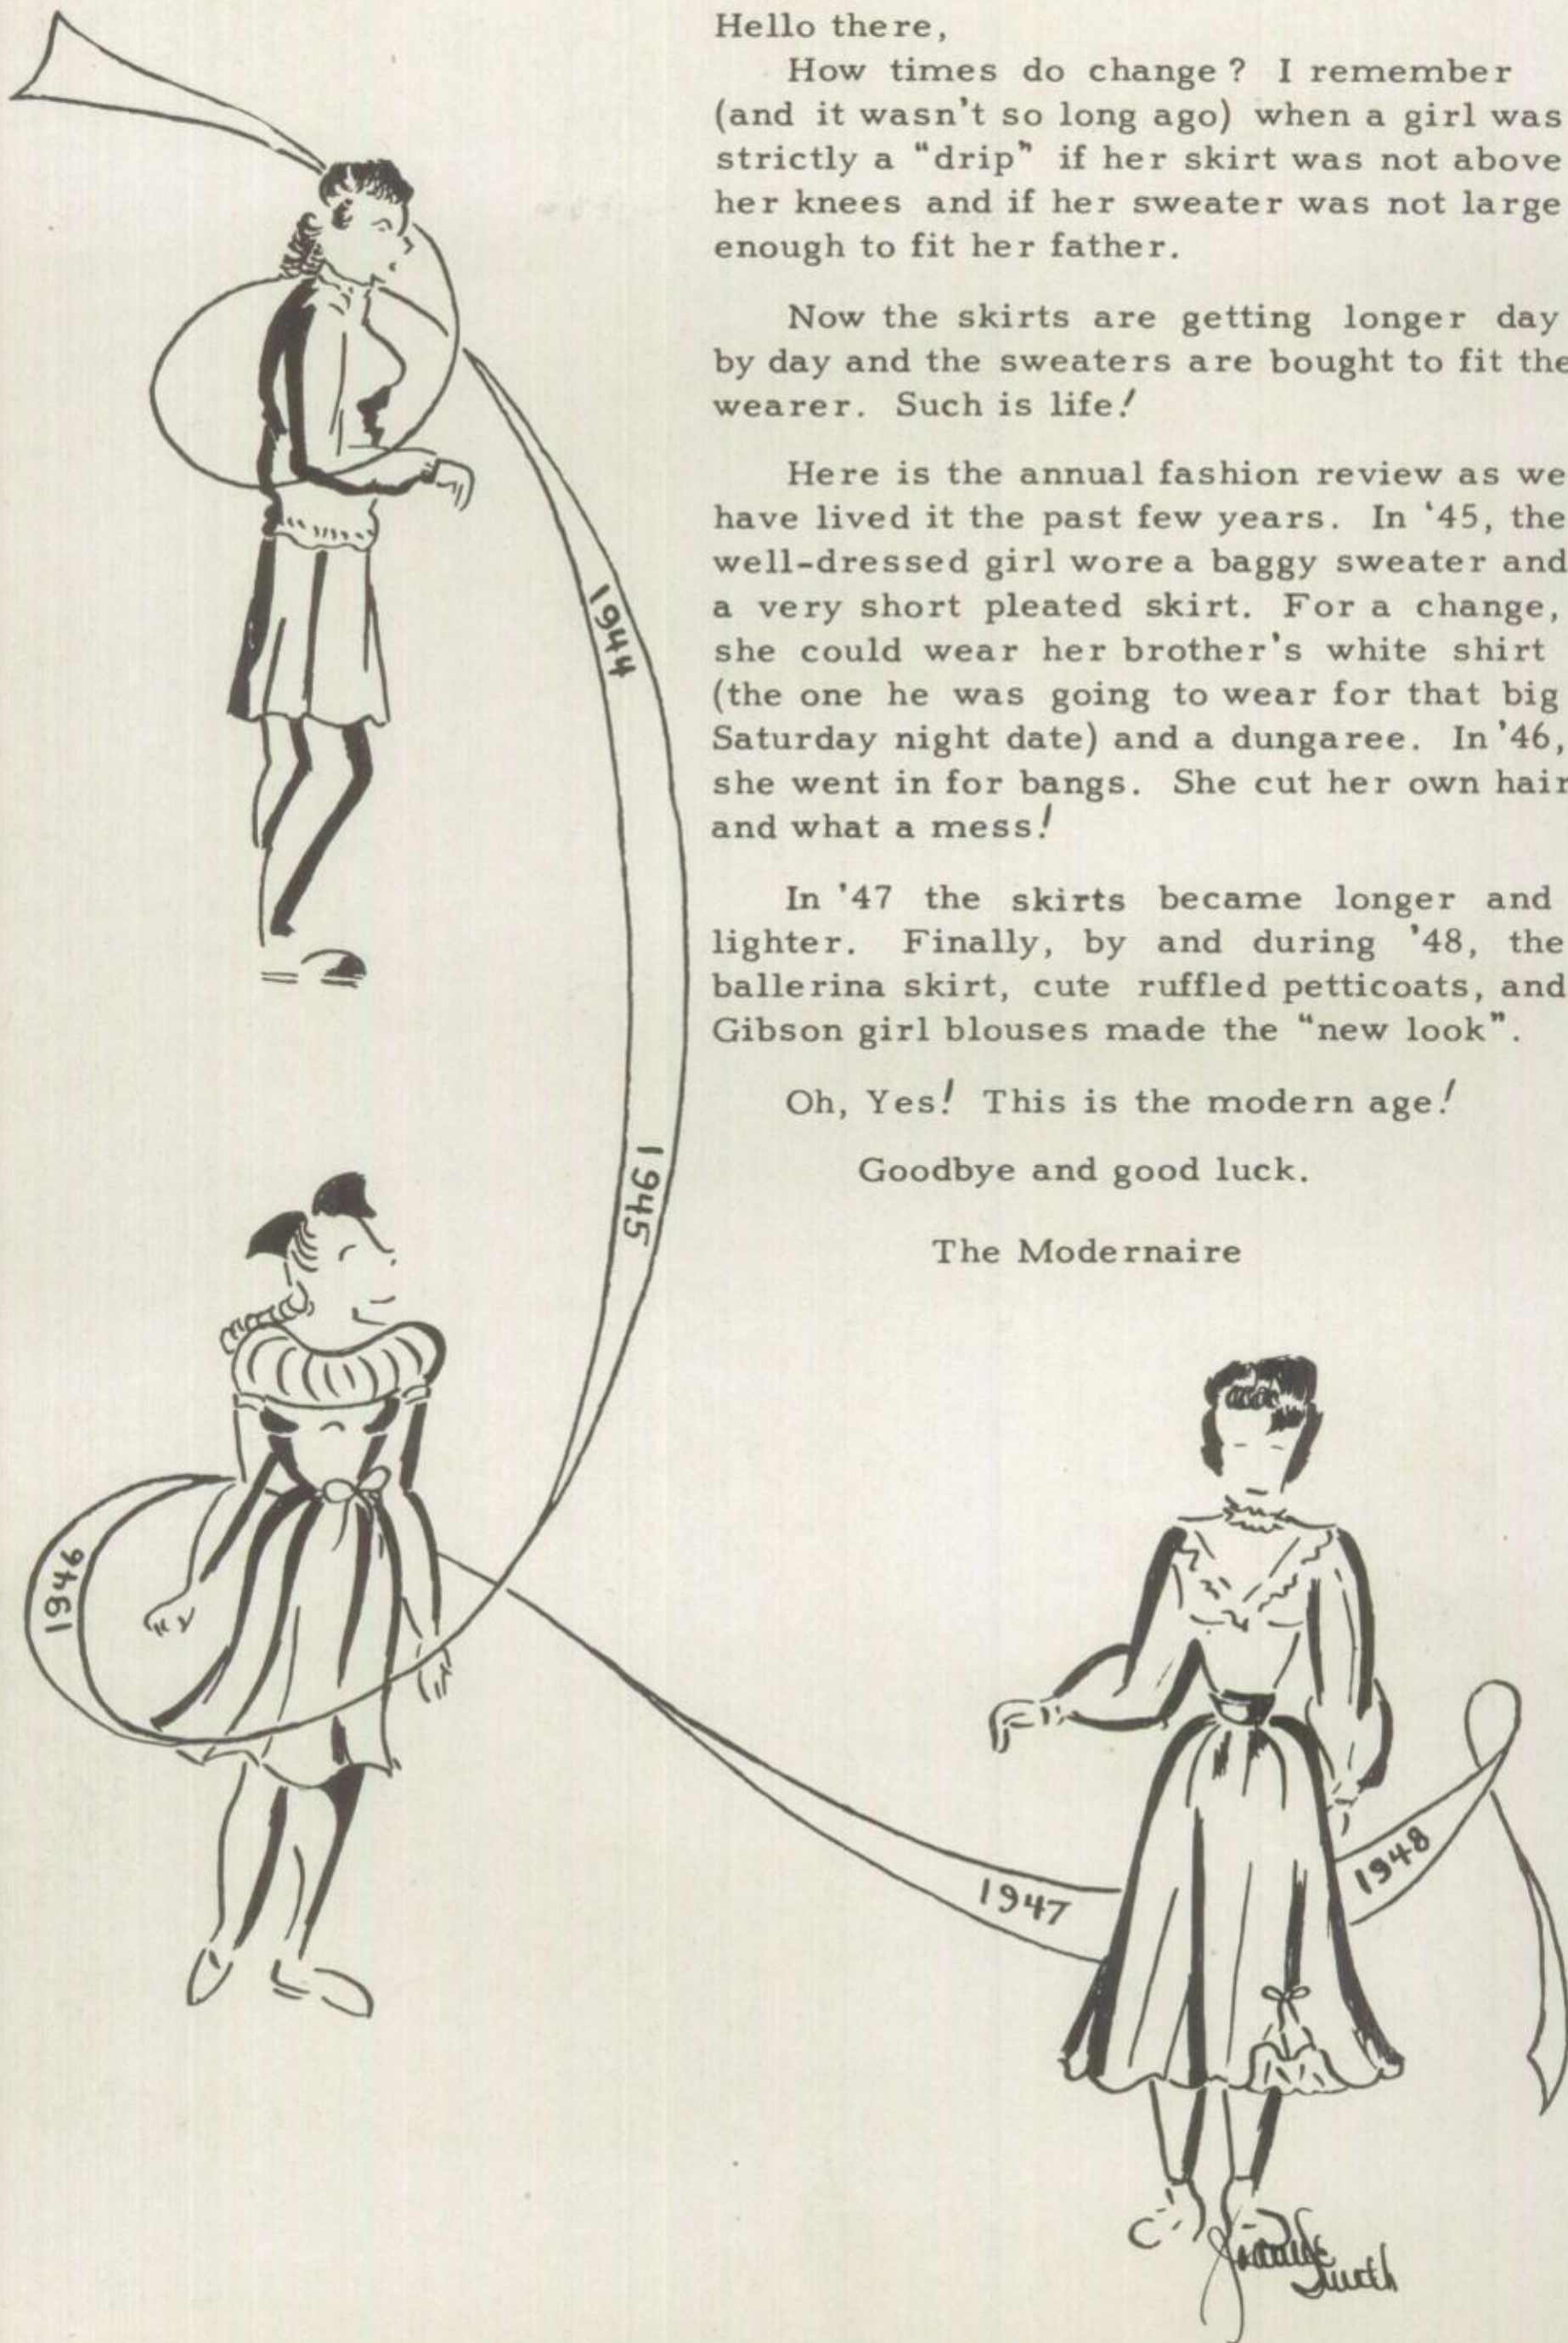

Here is the annual fashion review as we have lived it the past few years. In '45, the well-dressed girl wore a baggy sweater and a very short pleated skirt. For a change, she could wear her brother's white shirt (the one he was going to wear for that big Saturday night date) and a dungaree. In '46, she went in for bangs. She cut her own hair and what a mess!

In '47 the skirts became longer and lighter. Finally, by and during '48, the ballerina skirt, cute ruffled petticoats, and Gibson girl blouses made the "new look".

Oh, Yes! This is the modern age!

Goodbye and good luck.

OUR RINGS!

Diary

June 1947

Here is lazy June and we are seniors at last.

July 1947

Pardon our gestures, but we are practising showing off our class rings. We envy Virginia Stevens' "special Ring" from Don Hartman.

August 1947

Why not have classes in the swimming pool?

September 1947

East opened up her doors to the largest freshie class ever enrolled here. Berniece Burton received a beautiful diamond.

October 1947

The class rings have arrived. Alice Prichard and Ethel Feldman have become disk jockeys at WCKY. The Freshie Party is a riot. Peek on page 42.

November 1947

"Watch the birdie". Senior pictures, you know. We are buying and selling Christmas cards for the Triangle and also gaining pounds from the delicious cakes and candies sold on Visitors' Night. Love the Lollipop Lane!

December 1947

Merry Christmas! The lucky kids at school enjoy a beautiful production of "Why the Chimes Rang" while the unlucky Distributives are fighting the "Battle of the Christmas Shoppers".

January 1948
 January makes us wonder! Helen Schnee...why he waited so long before giving her his "Roger Bacon" ring. Pat McMullen about Johnny. Junita Harlow....about the Wedding March. All of us....why we didn't study more before the exams.

February 1948
 It's Leap Year, you know. Hmmm! Miss Selma Dubin and Miss Frances Templeton appear in the "New Look". LaVerne Reishad a coming out party for her appendix. Mildred Herbert was a grand representative for East on the Junior Town Meeting broadcast.

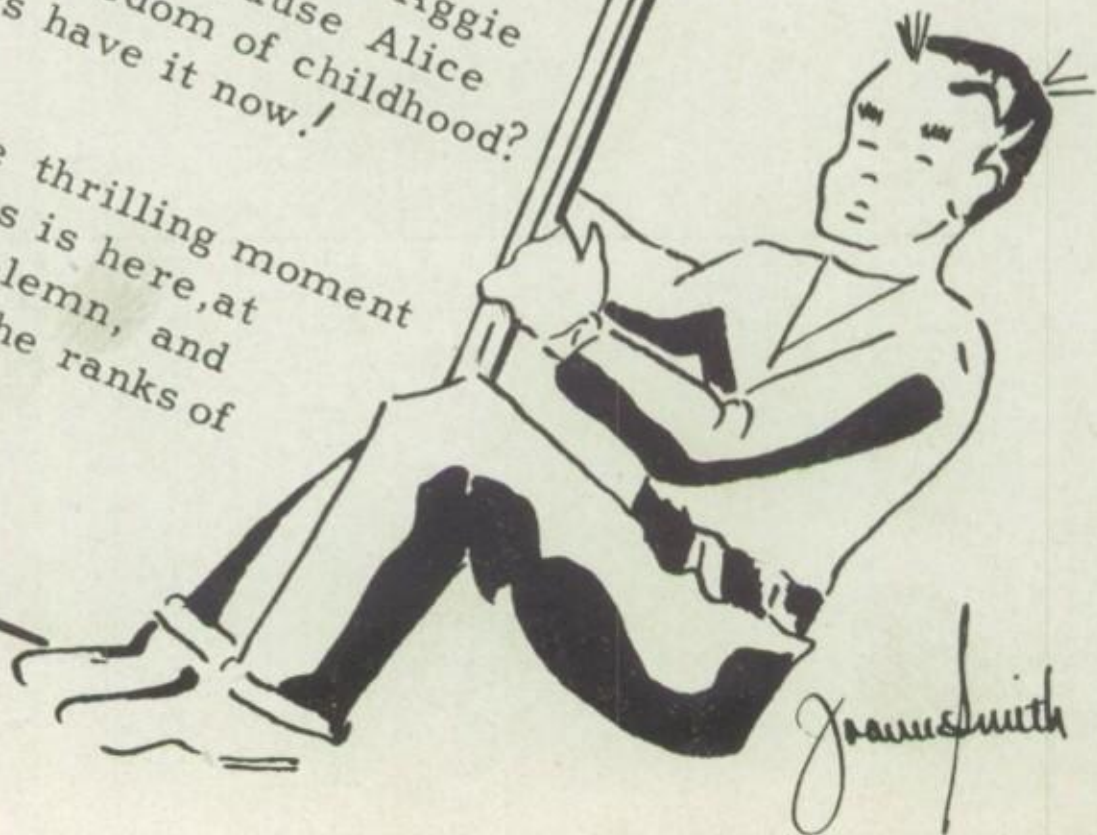

March 1948
 Spring is here! Don't we envy Jo Marasco and Patty Morse spending Easter in Washington. Girls' Week finds the girls dashing here and there representing East in the activities of the week. Joanne Smith and Margaret Vainisi have had their Home Furnishings Manuals entered in a national contest sponsored by the Future Retailers.

April 1948
 Remember how Dick Loesche's tie lighted up as he came court- in' "Cora Belle" at the Y-Teen party? Stars in our eyes, music in our toes, wasn't it wonderful to glide over the floor in the arms of That Man? Love Proms!

May 1948
 "Green Shudders"! Could we forget Helen Imhoff as Aggie the brat, who got away with a great deal because Alice Prichard, her aunt, believed in the freedom of childhood? Graduation jitters! Do the seniors have it now!

June 1948
 "Pomp and Circumstance". The thrilling moment we've awaited for four long years is here, at last. We're very happy, very solemn, and very scared. Proudly, we join the ranks of East Vocational graduates.

"Thank You So Much" (with apologies to Bob Hope)

The Triangle reflects the cooperative efforts not only of the staff but also of everyone who makes up the personnel of East Vocational High School. Therefore, briefly but sweetly, the Annual Staff of '48 thanks everyone at East for cooperation and for any contribution that was made to make this yearbook what it is.

The Staff gives its heartfelt appreciation to the following members of the faculty in particular:

Mrs. R. Lape - Our Principal

Mr. R. Dahling

Miss S. Dubin

Miss L. Hartzel

Miss M. Hinant

Mrs. R. Jones

Miss H. Jacoby
Secretary

Miss H. Koch

Miss E. Peoples

Mrs. E. Shields

Mrs. C. Walker

Miss S. Woliver

and to the following for professional advice:

Mr. A. Albietz

Mr. J. Rabius

To all who have bought, supported or sponsored the Triangle, we say again

"Thank You So Much".

Jeanette Ludwig,
Editor
